VENUS

If Venus is in the 2nd or 8th House your ability to attract money is high - get comfortable with your ability to receive. You could lose it quickly if you don't feel worthy of it with this placement here.

Venus Aries - Fun, fresh passion and you can be prone to boredom. You have the ability to attract money quickly but also spend it quickly too. Your ability to make money is holding on to your worth and not seeking attracting financial possession to give yourself self-worth. Money comes quickly and you spend it quickly too. Finding a balance and getting comfortable with your ability to attract is your super power. How can I create more balance with spending money? How can I feel worthy receiving it?

Venus Taurus - Money needs to feel safe and secure for you. Managing money feels good and sensual for you. You feel comfortable with it and managing it. The only tendency is you could get stuck in the mud, not take risk because you want to feel safe and then end up feeling stagnant. Your ability to attract money is your ability to appreciate it and look after it. But also there needs to be a balance with spending it and allowing it to move freely. Taking a risk and splurging are key ways for you to grow with money. Where can you take a risk? Where do you hold onto money for safety that feels like it holds you back?

Venus Gemini - Money is attracted to you through social stimulation, conversations, networking and your ability to charm. Your commitment to money could be fleeting losing interest. You can attract money through connections and learning. Growing your network will be important. You may find that you can create money through your charm. However, it's important for you to see your value to be able to receive money and speak up and identify as yourself to be able to feel the ability to hold and attract this wealth. Seeing yourself in this way and feeling confident to. How can you accept invitations of wealth? What holds you back from receiving it?

VENUS

If venus is in the 2nd or 8th House your ability to attract money is high - get comfortable with your ability to receive. You could loose it quickly if you don't feel worthy of it with this placement here.

Venus Cancer - You have the ability to be emotionally charged around money. You attract it through being vulnerable and open to receive. However your biggest challenge is letting down the walls to be able to be vulnerable enough to receive it. Receive help from someone else. It's likely that you want to hold the fought and protect. Your greatest way to attract money is being vulnerable. Where do you have boundaries that stop you receiving support? How can you let down your guard and be willing to accept help?

Venus Leo - You attract money by seeing the value you in yourself, but you are likely to loose money with your over generous giving heart. You attract money by what you give others. Your ability to be able to attract it is deeply rooted in how you value yourself. How you recognise yourself. Where do you give money away to be liked? How can you see the value which you hold to others? What can you do to support yourself to not spend money just to please others? Where can you be more generous to yourself?

Venus Virgo - You can attract money with your ability to plan and organise. But you can hold high standards maybe on yourself and others. Living little room for magic to come through. Attraction is divine feminine energy. Attracting money through holding trust in your plan, dropping plans to allow yourself to receive and recognising that it's enough and you are enough. How can you let go? What abundance already exists how can you allow it time and space to breathe and realise it's enough?

VENUS

If Venus is in the 2nd or 8th House your ability to attract money is high - get comfortable with your ability to receive. You could lose it quickly if you don't feel worthy of it with this placement here.

Venus Libra - You attract money with your ability to flirt and charm others. Libra is at home here Venus rules Libra energy. You are likely able to receive money and attract it this way. Here it's about being comfortable with your ability to attract it if you lack in self-worth or over-compensate through people-pleasing you are likely to not be able to receive money. Identifying how you give in relationships can help. Also another way is having high standards and having a wondering eye. How can you see what you bring into relationships to be able to accept the abundance you attract? How can you lower your standards to be able to receive the abundance that wants to come to you.

Venus Scorpio - Intense of the zodiac there could be a tendency to be over-obsessive with your finances. It's likely you can create money and attract it through power play or being overly involved. It's important to allow yourself to trust yourself with money and your ability to receive it. You may prevent yourself from being able to receive it through lack of trust or burning it down and recreating it. How can you create trust with managing money? How can you allow yourself to trust yourself with money?

Venus Sagittarius - It's important for you to feel free with money. You attract money through your adventurous, free-spirited nature and your ability to create it through joy lights up your soul. How can you allow yourself to freely express yourself with money? What ways do you wish to attract money that feel magical for you? It's important to let go of the idea of that something better is on the horizon. How can you learn to value the wealth you already have to attract more?

VENUS

If Venus is in the 2nd or 8th House your ability to attract money is high - get comfortable with your ability to receive. You could lose it quickly if you don't feel worthy of it with this placement here.

Venus Capricorn - Success, more, success, more.... your ability to attract wealth is through your love of creating a process to be able to receive money. Gaining confidence in your ability to hold wealth is important here. You can attract it through your work and hardwork. However, have you recognised what you have already attracted? Money loves attention, your ability to attract wealth is recognising what you have created or maybe if you are struggling to take ownership that you can take responsibility and hold wealth.

Venus Aquarius - You attract money through freedom, embracing freedom and feeling free in your finances. You may have a desire to create it through outside of the box ways of receiving money. Which you might deny yourself as it isn't the norm. It's important to explore these innovative ideas and also allow yourself to hold freedom in your finances. What ideas and thoughts have you got on money that sit outside of societal norms? What beliefs do you have around money that differ how can you embrace this?

Venus Pisces - You believe in magic when it comes to finances. You believe it to fund a fairytale Disney like lifestyle. Your ability to attract it is through your wild imagination. It's important you gain balance and have safety to explore this, thinking of how you can integrate dreamy like belief with the earthly world will be a challenge. Where do you imagine money being in your life? What do you believe money can fund for you in your lifetime? How can you integrate this dreamy idea into a plan?
